

Land grants legislation

June 11, 1886

J. S. Kennedy to Hill

Reports on his trip to visit senators and representatives in Washington: no need to fear objectionable legislation re land matters. The sale by Becker of the Ellendale line to Washburn is all in our favor; now we can "go boldly into the territory, which is seeking an outlet by our lines to Duluth."

General Correspondence by Date

