

Le Clercq

Came from Holland to visit in Minnesota in 1874. Delano introduced Le Clercq to J.J.Hill. Le Clercq claimed to represent the interests of a great many Dutch bond-holders in opposition to the committee or principally in opposition to Lippman Rosenthal Company.

See: Farley Suit P. 25

Le Clercq sent  Hill a weekly paper containing articles about the St. Paul and Pacific R.R. These articles were published in a weekly paper entitled, "Financier," and were translated for Hill by one of his neighbors, by the name of Kline. See Kline in this index.