

Livingston, Crawford

May 12, 1895

Livingston to JJH, General Correspondence

"I am sorry I was not in London so I could have been the first to congratulate you on your success. I got a little frightened Friday, when you cabled that it looked doubtfull, and sold 31M of my Consols, but in less than ten minutes, I made up my mind that you would pull it through..."