

Luxton, W. F.

From 1873 prominent in political and press matters in Manitoba, took charge of what may be looked upon as the first public school in Manitoba.

See Alexander Begg, History of the Northwest,
p. 146