

McKenzie, Alex.

March 15, 1909

W. C. Plummer to James J. Hill.

"Perhaps you may remember me, as I was for some years out in North Dakota and somewhat of a factor in the affairs of that State."

...."I am emboldened to write this letter because your friend and mine--Aleck McKenzie has often reminded me that you have at different times made kindly inquiries as to my whereabouts."

General correspondence date