

[McKenzie], Alex

[April 27, 1899][?]

E. R. Bacon [?] to J. J. Hill.

Has seen Alex [McKenzie][?], who believes that Hill ought to come to Washington [D.C.] to see "C" [Creel][?] at once. States "C" seems to want to be assured of your aid in his re election." Also states, "He"[Alex McKenzie] "says that you have got a good chance now to make arrangement with C as to politics in your part of the country."

General correspondence by date