

Maginnis, Martin

January 19, 1886

Hill to Maginnis, Helena, Montana

"It certainly would be poor policy for the Northern Pacific to prevent the development of that country or to estrange any capital that can be induced to come into it, and while they have made serious mistakes in the past, I hope they have profited by some of them and that our friend Powers may have overestimated their anxiety."

JJH LetterBook, 9/12/85 - 3/22/86, p. 647