

Maginnis, Martin

January 27, 1903

Maginnis in Helena to Hill

[Montana] legislature is in session and occupied investigating a "nasty state of affairs." Democrats have Senate, ~~the~~ Republicans the House and "Henize has the governor." So no "vicious legislation" can be passed. Governor "very warmly urges a railroad commission," but no popular demand for it. "But for the eternal fight between copper mining companies we would have a peaceful and useful session."

General Correspondence by Date