

Maginnis, Martin (1841-(at least 1912)

Minn. resident, 1867-61; student at Hamline University until Civil War; First and Eleventh Minn. Regiments, 1861-5, attaining the rank of major; war correspondent during much of this period for Red Wing newspapers; went to Montana in 1866 (Helena), where he was editor of Daily Gazette, representative in Congress, 1873-85; U.S. Senator, 1900; in 1912 was still in Mont. mining and real estate businesses.