

Mayer, Francis B.

Oct. 30, 1891

(enclosed in C. K. Lord, vice president of the Baltimore & Ohio rr.) Nov. 9, 1891.

Offers to paint a picture of the Treaty of Traverse des Sioux and tells of that treaty in its making, of Henry H. Sibley as his tent mate, and so forth.

General Correspondence by date

[This was probably the origin of the painting which now hangs in the Minn. State Capitol, and probably given by JJH]
