

Mehl, Eugene

August 10, 1887

Hill to Austin, Nichols & Co., New York

"I have trusted Mr. Mehl for several thousand dollars and have always found him honest. He conducts the eating room at the Union Station in St. Paul and I think it pays him well. He also runs the Hotel Lafayette which I think has paid him more than expenses."

JJH LetterBook, 6/6/87 - 4/12/88, p. 157

See Austin, Nichols & Co. to JJH (Aug. 8, 1887, Gen. Corresp.) for original inquiry, with above note penciled in margin in JJH's handwriting. [RMF 7/82]
