

Mellen, [Chas. S.]

June 10, 1898

W. L. Bull to James J. Hill.

Has had a long conference with Mellen regarding the dispute between the Northern Pacific Road and the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company. Mellen considers the "Portland Agreement" still active and also states that he intends to abide by it, "unless forced to do otherwise by our action."

General correspondence by date.