B. H. Meyer to J. J. Hill.

"You will be interested in knowing that I secured quite a few valuable books, pamphlets, and railway pictures in London - many of them extremely rare and of great interest... In fact, I bought everything which had accumulated in two of the chief antiquarian shops. I hope we shall be as lucky regarding old material relating to railways in the United States. When you come to Madison [Wis.] next fall, you will, I trust enjoy with us the many fine things which your generosity has made possible. There are duplicates of a number of books etc. which you may wish to have for your private library."
