

Miller, D.

June 12, 1901

Hill to Robert Bacon

"The proposed plan to turn over to Stubbs and Miller control of all competing traffic in common territory will be of great benefit to both interests. Evaluates D. Miller: "level headed and cautious; at the same time, firm and just in his dealings with others. Mr. Harris was delighted when I told him that Miller would come to Chicago."

JJH LetterBook, 3/13/99 - 5/30/02, p. 321

Miller, [D.?]

June 12, 1901

See

Railroads - Agreements