

Miller, Roswell
(Pres. Chicago, Mil.
& St. Paul Ry. Co.)

July 31, 1899

Roswell Miller to James J. Hill.

Encloses clipping from the Chicago Herald of July 30, 1899. Hopes that the article is in error so far as the Great Northern Road building into the territory of the Chicago, Milw. and St. Paul Road is concerned. Has heard that Hill is "looking over the country from Tyndall [S.D.] westward," but states that "I have already taken steps to build into that country, (certainly two lines are not necessary."
