

"Minneapolis Journal"

April 24, 1907

H.V.Jones to James J. Hill.

Swift of the [Minneapolis] Journal has offered to sell the paper to Jones for $1,250,000. The majority owner, Haskell, has died in Boston recently, and the minority wish to sell. Believes this is a good proposition.

General correspondence by date