

Minnesota-Newspapers

March 8, 1900

J. T. Murphy to J. J. Hill.

"There are very few Evening Newspapers in the Northwest which are not making money, and some of them are earning large dividends. In St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth the Evening papers are profitable. One third interest in the Evening Herold in Duluth sold recently for about $20,000."

General correspondence by date

