Hill to W. D. Washburn, H. of Rep., Washington Re syndicate of the Omaha road: "I hardly thin either the Milwaukee & St. Paul or the Omaha care as much for the property as they did before the M. & St. L. became strictly such a Chicago line. Senatorial contest is closer tha many looked for. Sabin is dangerously ill, whic takes away Windom's best man for the present.
Our senate is a good body of men but the house is largely composed of new men.
