

Montana Central Road - Celebration July 1, 1916 of June 26, 1916

Chas. Wegner's letter of condolence, attached to A. J. Breitenstein's letter of July 1, 1916

Mentioning that his first meeting with JJH "was after the completion of the Montana Central Rail Road to Helena, when he came out from St. Paul in his special Train and the same time he furnished a train for the people of Great Falls to go to Helena to the celebration there on November 22, 1887, where a meeting and Reception was held in the Ming Opera House, and where Mr. Hill spoke of the settlement and future of the Northwest."
