

Montana Central Road - Papers 1885 - 1894

2 boxes, including one volume

The correspondence of its first secretary, William Harrison (presumably related to Benj. Harrison, an investor in Montana Securities), of its president Charles A. Broadwater, of a later secretary S.J. Beals, of Martin Maginnis, Joseph T. Dodge, A. B. Rogers, Colin Napier, Paris Gibson, H. O. Chowen, and some others. Data can be found on the following matters: exploration for passes in the mountains near Butte and Sun River; Montana politics, especially W.A. Clark's campaign; efforts in Washington to get  right of Way bill passed through certain Indian reservations and the removal of tribes to other localities; prospects for erecting a smelter at Great Falls & Gov. Sam. T. Hauser's efforts to erect it in Helena; Montana Central Ry. Co.'s affairs in general; the r.r. strike of 1894 and Eugene V. Debs's relation to it; Red Mt. Consolidated Mining Co.; Sand Coulee Coal Mine; Great Falls Water Power & Townsite Co.; Boston & Montana Consolidated Copper & Silver Mining Co.; Montana Improvement Co.; Northern Pac. Road; Donald and Malcolm Grant of Faribault, contractors; &c

~~Miscellaneous File by Subject~~

Montana Securities Papers