

Morris, Charles A.

Was city engineer of St. Paul in 1862-63. He also assisted James Skinner, chief engineer of the St. Paul & Pacific R.R.

Morris also, as contractor, graded the Winona branch of the St. Paul & Pacific R.R. from St. Paul to Hastings.

In 1868 he became chief engineer of the 1st Division Company, and held this position until 1876 or longer.

See. Account of S.F.Folsom, attached

(Cont'd)

Morris, Charles A(2)

"Report of Chief Engineer to President of Minnesota & Pacific R.R., January 12, 1858.

(Continued from previous card.)

