

Negro Schools in U.S. May 20, 1906

(Harriet Beecher Stowe
Inst. Bloomington, Ill.)

Rev. George A. Brown to J.J.Hill.

Encloses newspaper clipping which describes work of this negro school, located in Bloomington, Ill. Also encloses photographs of school and children.

On Sept. 12, 1900 Hill had donated $500 to the school, which was located in Danville, Ill. at that time.

General corresponder  by date