

Negro Schools in U.S.

Nov. 24, 1912

Mrs. R.L.Furr to Mr. & Mrs. J.J.Hill.

Mrs. Furr, principal of Newport News Training School writes that "we have 117 children enrolled and three teachers, our children pay ten cents a week, and thus you see our school is entirely supported by friend[s]..."

General correspondence by date