

Neill, Edward Duffield

January 2, 1890

Neill to JJH, General Correspondence

"W. Stephens has written that you will bear the expense of printing the researches pertaining to the early commerce of Lake Superior for which accept my thanks. By its publication, based upon documents expected for the Reference Library, the value of such a Library will be clearly seen."

2/83