Endorsed: "Macalester College Reference Library
$1340.00 December 1892 Journal N^o 4, folio 152

[The Journal as cited refers also to Hill's letters, (which see) to Neill in copybook J, p.
445, July 10, 1888; and copybook S, p. 218,
July 22, 1890.]

Voucher 1882 refers to "The proposition to establish a Library of Reference in the Arts Science and Literature open to all investigator in connection with Macalester College." Hill agrees to give $5,000 [redacted] certain conditions to be met by the college as to a building of not less than $20,000 cost, and certain other stipulations. "Until the completion of the building the Librarian is authorized each month to draw on me for $30 for the purchase of important Books and material." [In 1890 Hill increased the amount to $50.00 per month, as the letter of July 22, 1890 reveals.]
