

Nelson, Knute

May 11, 1886

Knute Nelson to J. J. Hill.

The Indian appropriation bill just passed in Congress provides for the negotiation of agreements or treaties with the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota re the opening of portions of their reservations. States that it is extremely important that proper commissioners be selected. Urges Hill to write to the Secretary of the Interior and recommend some good men.

General correspondence by date