

Nichols, Edward T. - Statements 1885 - 1916

Nichols became <sup>2</sup> boxes Hill's attorney for most of his financial transactions in New York. Every little while he sent an itemized and lengthy statement to Hill, recording his transactions. This file, therefore, is of great importance for any study of Hill's finances, investments, securities, and so forth. These are usually recorded in Hill's Journals, and are numbered consecutively.

##1 to 384 and ## 1-3 for his estate
