

Nichols, Edward T.

Sept. 3, 1892

Nichols to JJH, General Correspondence

Reports on the cholera outbreak in N.Y.C., including ships in quarantine. Suggest GN take legal precautions for himself and Terhune "in case both of us were taken off." Provides brief but interesting commentary on the cholera situation.