

Nichols, E. T.

July 20, 1908

J.S. Kennedy to Hill

Is much concerned over Nichols' physical condition, which reminds him of his own state [in 1887, when the Farley case was pending and his testimony was desired, but his doctors recalled him from Florida, sending him to a "better climate" in Switzerland for sixteen months, where he was finally allowed to give his testimony.

General Correspondence by Date