

Hill to Edward D. Adams

I have not received from London any copy of a proposed plan of distribution of securities.... In regard to ... keeping Messrs Siemens and Gwinner fully advised, I am entirely in accord with the views you express.,,. I am fully convinced as to the wisdom of making the new Company financially very strong at the outset, and, in that way, establish for all securities guaranteed or held by it, the best standing.