

Northcote Farm-Wheat

February 24, 1904

L. E. Metzger to W. C. Toomey.

"we do not care for the Humboldt wheat, unless we could get the Northcote wheat..."

"The Northcote wheat is the class of wheat that we particularly want, as it has strength in it for flour. The Humboldt wheat, while good wheat, is very soft and somewhat smutty."

General correspondence by date

