

Northern Pacific Road      April 22, 1885

J. S. Kennedy to Hill

Unless you propose to abandon our claim against the Northern Pacific for an adjustment as arranged with Mr. Billings in the autumn of 1878, of what is due us for property taken on the Brainerd Branch, we should commence suit without further delay otherwise it will be outlawed as the six years expire next June. War between England and Russia probably cannot be averted.
