

Northern Securities-Suit      January 7, 1902

Carbon. [J.J.Hill] to Greenleaf Clark.

"The Harriman people are not behind any of this litigation in any way. They are anxious enough to take care of their own interest. The suit brought in Minnesota to enjoin the retirement of Northern Pacific Preferred had already been decided by Justice Scott of the Supreme Court of New York. The whole suit was gotten up by Munn and Bob Jacobson. Peter Power who figured as the plaintiff in the case, alleged that      had been a holder of common Stock of the Northern Pacific for over six months. His name has never appeared on the list of the Company's shareholders."
