W. P. Clough to Hill

Judge Lochren's decision in the lawsuit and its reception - favorable except for the N.Y. Evening Post, the Springfield Republican, and the Railway Gazette. "Judge Sanborn ... is not at all displeased with Judge Lochren's work. Judge Sanborn has since lunched with Roosevelt and may have been straightened out. Washburn is also reported to have visited the president two or three days previously. Possibly Sanborn may have been sent for, as a result of Washburn's representations."
