

Northern Securities Suit      July 10, 1903

Edward Tuck to J.J. Hill.

Has received several copies of the Harvard Law Review containing Professor Langdell's article[on the Northern Securities Case]. States that "Professor Langdell studied law in my father's office in Exeter, and my father considered him his best student and predicted for him a brilliant future."

General correspondence by date