

Northwestern Packet Company

In 1864 the general office of the company was in Dubuque, Iowa. The president was John Lawler, the sec'y and treas. was George A. Blanchard. Wm. E. Wellington was superintendent

See correspondence carrying letterhead of the North Western Packet Company in the years 1864 and 1865.