

Hill, J.J.-Political Activities April 19,
1896

W.C.Plummer (of the New York Mercury)
to J.J.Hill

Discusses the coming U.S. senatorial campaign (In North Dakota) between M.N. Johnson and Senator Hansbrough. States that Johnson is an "arrant demagogue" and that "his election would be a menace to every corporate interest in the country." Hopes to be in St. Paul before July.

General correspondence by date