

Hill, J.J. --Political Activities 1885

JJ^H to Hon. Michael Doran, chairman of the state central committee and state senator.

Re a bad bill in the House. JJH to Doran,
March 3, 1885

JJH Letterbooks

Hill, J.J.- Political activities 1885

During the spring of 1885 Hill wrote many letters to various Democratic Congressmen and others in Washington, D.C. in behalf of local men desiring government jobs.

JJH LetterBook, 3/15/85 - 9/8/85

Hill, James J. --Political Activities 1885

JJH to P. H. Kelly, C/o H.B.STrait, Washington
D.C. Feb. 24, 1885

Politics, especially of Dakota Territory. & Gov.
Ordway of that Territory, whom he has just seen & whom he recommends as knowing more than others. Also recommends Doran. Letter shows
Hill as a Democrat and planning that Dakota
Territory shall be Democratic. See also letter of Feb. 27.

JJH Letterbooks

Hill, James J. -- Political ~~and~~ ^{Activities} 1885

Introduces Morton S. Wilkinson to Hon. A.P.
Gorman, U.S. Senate, as a deserving Democrat
March 10, 1885

JJH Letterbooks