

Hill, J.J. - Residences (N.Y.) April 10, 1895

E.T. Nichols to Hill

Refers to M.C. Helion's description of Hill's house at 323 East 14th St., N.Y., probably for rent by Hill. Another letter of April 15 tell more about it: "all apartments in it are rented Eugene Mehl probably handled the affair for Hill. See a letter (& enclosure of April 23) of April 24, 1895, describing the house and evaluating it. An April 29 letter shows that Hill wants to sell it at $22,500 if possible. A letter of July 16, 1895 reveals that it was sold.
