

Hill, James J.-Portrait      November 1, 1902

C. A. Zimmerman to James J. Hill.

"I am sending you herewith a portrait made from a group sitting..." "The portrait was made at a time when there was no recent picture of yourself in existence and I hoped to have an acceptable one through this effort."

[A note in Toomey's handwriting states, "This portrait has been returned to Mr. Zimmerman."]

[There is supposed to be in existence a collection of Zimmerman's photographs.]
