

Hill, James J.-Reference Library Jan. 4, 1916.

Walter Butler to James J. Hill.

Re the Kettle River stone being delivered for building the Hill Reference Library. Butler states: "we are inclined to think that the delay on the part of the stone men is to some extent due to a desire to turn out an exceptionally good piece of work."

Toomey File