

Hill, James J. - Servants

May 13, 1886

J.W. Fairbanks to C.H. Benedict, Gen. Corresp.

"All the knowledge I have of his [H.R. Dickieson] present status, came from Christine (if that is her name) Mrs. Hill's laundry servant. Some three months ago, she visited her brother who lives in Reynolds and Mr. Dickieson sent greetings by her to me. She will tell you more than I can about his present business and his influence in the community."
