

Hill, James J. Public offices held.

In 1886 Hill was vice-president of the "Citizens League of St. Paul," John Ireland was president.

See: John Ireland to Hill, July 22, 1886.

(From Amberg # 31.)

Hill, James J. Public Offices Held.

Elected to Executive Council of Minnesota
Historical Society, January 8, 1894.

See: Printed notice from Wm. R. Marshall to Hill, January 15, 1894.

General Correspondence.

Hill, James J. Public Offices Held.

Member of Minnesota Historical Society's Executive Council for 42 years. See: letter from Warren Upham to Jas. J. Hill, May 6, 1910, which states, "you were first elected a member of this Society's Executive Council on December 14, 1868, and by triennial re-elections have continued as a councillor to the present time. This exceeds by more than ten years the term of service of any other councillor, the next being Gen. James H. Baker'

General Correspondence.