

Hill, Jas. J.-Views on
Personal Newspaper
Interviews

March 10, 1902

Carbon. J.J.Hill to Melville Stone

"I see in the newspapers a great many supposed interviews with myself,-scarcely a day passes without one or more. As a matter of fact I have not given any interview to any newspaper since I have been in New York further than occasionally to deny categorical, stupid or ridiculous reports." ... "I have known cases where they [newspaper reporters] refused to send absolutely correct information and have supplied long stories of garrulous trashy falsehood. I think I am safe in saying that three-fourths of what is published in the newspapers in regard to railways is absolutely untrue, and is either the inspired effort of some interested party or an attempt to fill space with sensational stuff
