

Hill, Jas. N.

October 28, 1899

James N. Hill to James J. Hill.

Re appointing a new assistant general superintendant for the Great Northern Road. Mellen has gone to Seattle with plans for the new station, so it appears that the Northern Pacific Road will go right ahead and build a union station in Seattle.

The strike situation is improving, but the Seattle papers still print strike news.

General correspondence by date