

Hill, J.J.-Personality

June 30, 1912

Wm. G. Le Duc to James J. Hill.

"you have fairly won your title of Empire builder. Destiny has been generous to you, and you have met the obligations imposed on you by Destiny with manly courage and unflagging industry and conscientious regard for the welfare of the subjects of your Empire."

"I have watched with admiration your steady march forward up to your zenith, and now with pleasure commend the wisdom of your voluntary retirement before old age impairs your facilities and t' work overtime bodily strength."

General correspondence by date