

Hill, J.J.-Views on High School Graduates      June 19, 1915

Carbon.    J.J.Hill to W.D.Simons.

"High school graduates who come to us with a good record and recommendations are unable frequently to write a letter in fair English, to spell correctly or to make simple arithmetical computations either quickly or correctly."

General correspondence by date