

Hill, J.J. - Views on rural life Aug. 1, 1909

Hill to Chas. F. Manderson, Omaha

Re growth of cities in U.S. at expense of the agricultural claw - worries Hill for future markets for industrial products of U. S. That is why he takes "so much interest in the matter of our agricultural work and particularly in the preservation of the fertility of our soil."

JJH LetterBook, 3/14/08 - 3/17/10, p. 289