Nov. 21, 1887

MTH to Stephens, General Correspondence

"If it is be not too late to secure reasonably fair seats for the Boston Ideals' performance of 'The Daughter of the Regiment' this evening (Nov: 21st) will you kindly send for four tickets? Our choice would be for seats in the circle, though not further back than the third row. However, we will be glad to take what you can get for us- Will you also give to the bearer three finger rings [goes on to describe each]...."
