

JJH - Political Activities

March 6, 1889

W.A. Stephens to JJH, General Correspondence

Regarding use of "the ballots of the farm hands at North Oaks" to help win election for S.A. Thompson, Chairman of Supervisors for town of Mounds View.

"The opposing party comprises old man Ryan, some Bohemians and Poles." If JJH wants to help, Stephens says he "shall arrange everything to bring it about."
